1 Kings 6:38

Spiritual cruise control dangerous to our faith. There are times when we need accelerate, and times we need to slow down, but spiritual cruise control is not ever an option.

When we aren't paying attention to and nurturing our relationship with the Lord (keeping focus on the God of our temple) temple we begin to drift out of our lane into the world's lane.

- Drifting leads to distraction.
- Distraction leads to division.
- Division leads to desertion.
- Desertion leads to destruction.

Avoid the D's of spiritual cruising:

Focus: to direct one's attention or efforts

- Focus on the Lord
- Feast on the Word

Focus, never stop focusing on my relationship with the Lord. NEVER! It's too dangerous. Oh, and the things I miss when I drift!
